

INVITATION FOR SHORT TERM JOINT STAFF TRAINING EVENT

5 days international training on palliative clinical field and intercultural and multilingual medical communication

Period: 27 February – 03 March 2017

Duration: 5 days

Location: Italy, Florence, Via Luigi Lanzi n° 12, 50134

Receiving institution: Pixel Associazione Culturale

Trainer institution: Gr.T.Popa University of Medicine and Pharmacy Iasi, Romania

To whom we address: medical and language lecturers, trainers and specialists involved in teaching medicine and multilingual medical communication

About the training:

The aim of the training is to bring internationally medical & linguistic staff to share experiences & to familiarize with the Palliative Care MOOC project. Focus will also be on how to adapt & use these courses & materials in their contexts.

This learning/teaching/training activity is a mobility event with the aim to transfer the resources created by the project partners; the participants will get familiar with the open digital educational resources in the field of palliative medicine based on innovative guidelines promoting standardized fundamental medical procedures, clinical language and communication skills. Gaining knowledge and competences is facilitated and monitored through state of the art technology and collaborative constructive methods. Following the training the participants will benefit from an educational pack for supporting the learning/teaching processes of medical lecturers, language teachers, medical students, and lay people involved in causalities.

Check the training programme for more details on the topics to be covered.

The training is taking place within the Palliative Care MOOC project - Massive open online courses with videos for palliative clinical field and intercultural and multilingual medical communication, Ref. no: 2014-1-RO01-KA203-002940, co-founded by the European Union under the Erasmus+ programme.
